PPSA Status Report
University Council
April 27, 2011

PPSA has had numerous and successful programs this Spring, including an enjoyable and informative talk with Leslie Kruhly. Other successful workshops included: Performance Evaluation Strategies, co-sponsoring Jared Diamond, Unlocking the Secrets of the Library, Mindfulness and Stress Management, Positive Psychology, WIC Technology sessions, Navigating the Digital Minefield, and a cooking demonstration with Bon Appetit.

On May 31st, PPSA will host a session with Stacey Lopez called “Who Are Penn Students?” The session is designed to enlighten staff members about the population they serve.

PPSA conducted a survey of members to help determine programming and initiatives for next year. Results will be posted soon.

PPSA is accepting nominations for executive board positions. Nominations are due May 13th and the Elections meeting will be held in June. For more information, go to http://penn-ppsa.org/.

Respectfully Submitted,

Laurie McCall – Chair
Glenn Stieffenhofer – Chair-Elect
